

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. We get far fewer irritating telephone solicitation calls now. We like the Indiana Privacy Law. If there are to be national standards they should be at least as strong as what Indiana has now.